

Pottery Teacher Part-time Position

The Brookline Arts Center (BAC) is seeking a pottery teacher to work with children, teens and/or adults starting this winter. The teacher will be responsible for providing overall class goals and objectives, developing class content and curriculum and providing a nurturing environment for students.

The BAC's popular ceramics classes focus on wheelthrowing and handbuilding fundamentals, as well as patterns and decorative glazing techniques. We are looking for a teacher who enjoys working with children, teens and/or adults to teach classes for either/both age groups.

During the fall, winter and spring, classes meet during the week in the mornings, afterschool, evenings and Saturday and Sunday mornings.

Qualifications:

- Excellent knowledge of ceramics.
- Experience teaching and creating curriculum for ceramics classes.
- Excellent communication and organizational skills.
- Knowledge of general safety rules and basic first aid.
- Professional and patient.
- Ability to work effectively in teams and individually.
- Knowledge of safe ceramic materials and care of studio space.
- MA in Ceramics, Studio Art or Art Education preferred or equivalent work experience.

*Interested applicants are encouraged to also apply to our open Ceramic Technician position. See website for more details.

Please email a resume, cover letter and portfolio of current work (a link or an attachment) to dalton@brooklineartscenter.com with "Pottery Teacher" in the subject line. Deadline for applications is Sunday, November 26.
